PARTING.

O Brook, be still! O gentle South,
Thy kisses cease amongst the noisy leaves,
And only kiss my burning mouth!

O Stars, make all your light to pour
On him whose love to me so fondly cleaves—
On him who comes, to come no more!

For now indeed I cannot spare
His first least footsteps; and I fain would see
Far as I may how sad they fare.

Or shall I wish that unaware
He should come near, and sweetly startle me,
His hand upon my arm? 'Tis there!

O Brook, flow on! O amorous South,
Kiss with a thousand kisses all the leaves!—
His kisses tremble on my mouth!

But, ah, kind Stars, let not your light
Confuse the sweetness of my lover's eyes,
That bid farewell to mine to-night!

Farewell! farewell to mine to-night!
Farewell! farewell to mine to-night!
—Frederick Greenwood.

FLOW OF WATER THROUGH PIPES.

Mr. Root, of New York, recently read a paper before the Polytechnic Association of the American Institute in which he described an experiment he had tried for the purpose of ascertaining the effect produced on the flow of water through pipes by dividing the pipes with perforated diaphragms. In a three-inch tin pipe he inserted ten diaphragms, at equal distances, with a hole three-fourths of an inch in diameter through the centre of each diaphragm. The pipe was perforated on the upper side by a minute hole in each space between the diaphragms, and water was admitted under a head. The jet from the minute opening nearest the end of the pipe where the water was admitted rose to the height of ten inches, the next jet to the height of nine inches, the next to the height of eight inches, the next to seven, the next to six, and so on to the last, where the water rose one inch, and it flowed out of the three quarter opening at the end of the pipe without any projectile force, falling perpendicularly.

Mr. Nixon explained that the obstruction in the flow of the water was caused by eddies formed between the diaphragms. He described an experiment tried in Jersey City, of making enlargements in a pipe, and it was found that four or five enlargements diminished the flow of the water sixty per cent.—Mining and Scientific Press.

FANNY FERN thus beautifully expresses the feelings of utter loneliness and desolation—the "strong yearning of passionate pain," of those who are written homeless: "We sometimes think it is only the homeless who can understand in its full meaning, the word 'Home.' Think what it must mean to those whose desolate hearts no smile cheers; who pass daily thousands of their fellow creatures intent on their errands of business or pleasure, to whom their life or death is a matter of no moment; who look into the pleasant windows as they pass, and see the well-filled table, while they hunger and thirst, but often more eagerly for companionship than food. Then think what it must mean when sickness and death shall come, and life ebbs slowly away, and the ear aches listening vainly for a friendly footfall, and the soul faints with longing for a kindly pressure of a loving hand, as the dark valley appears in sight. Ah! well for such when this poor life is over, and the brightness of another existence dawns upon the soul."

FREEMASONRY is older than letters.—In Brand's "Encyclopedia of Science, Literature, and Art," it is thus spoken of: "From Egypt were derived the principal mysteries, and it was in the darkness of subterranean apartments that these institutions had birth in which secrecy was the first law. According to Plutarch, the sphynxes with which the entrances of their temples were decorated, signified that the Egyptian mythology was mysterious and emblematic. In the temples the line and square were never abandoned. They had no circular monuments, and their temples were covered with symbolic characters. Thus has Masonry seen the introduction of letters, the discovery of arts and sciences, and the spread of religion; it has witnessed the rise and fall of all the old nations of the earth; survived the darkness and turmoil of the middle ages, and now stands the wonder of the world."

The New Enrolment Act.

There have been so many changes and rumors of changes respecting the Enrolment Act, that the people who are to furnish the contingents for military service, and replenish the army, have hardly known what or what not to expect. The law, however, has at length been definitely settled by Congress, at least for the present session, and we give herewith as clear an abstract of it as it is possible to make. The $800 commutation clause is totally repealed, so that, henceforth, persons who are drafted and pass the examination, must either go or send a substitute. The term of service of drafted men, however, has been reduced from three years to one year. The section making this regulation provides that, when any call for volunteers shall have been made by the President, in case the quota, or any part thereof, or any town, township, ward of a city, precinct, or election district, or of any county not so subdivided, shall not be filled within the space of fifty days after such call, then the President is required immediately to order a draft for one year to fill such quota, or any part thereof which may be unfilled, and in case of any such draft, no payment of money shall be accepted or received by the Government as commutation to release any enrolled or drafted man from personal obligation to perform military service.

Drafted men, substitutes, and volunteers, when mustered in, are to be assigned to regiments, batteries, or other organizations of their own States, and, as far as practicable, be permitted to select their own regiments or batteries. Instead of traveling pay, all drafted persons reporting at the place of rendezvous are to be allowed transportation from their places of residence, and persons discharged at the place of rendezvous are to be allowed transportation to their places of residence.

An important alteration in the previous law, consists in the fact that now, if any person duly drafted shall be absent from home in the prosecution of his usual business, the provost marshal of the district is required to notify him as soon as may be, and he is not to be deemed a deserter, nor liable as such, until notice has been given to him, and reasonable time allowed for him to return and report to the provost marshal of his district; but such absence shall not otherwise affect his liability under this act.

Nothing contained in this act is to be construed to alter, or in any way affect the section of the former Enrolment Act relative to those conscientiously opposed to bearing arms, or to affect the rights of persons to procure substitutes.

HOW TO SHOE A VICIOUS HORSE.—Procure a piece of sponge and saturate it with equal parts of sulphuric acid and chloroform, envelope the same with a towel (unless a more convenient apparatus is at hand) apply the same to his horse's nostrils; in a very few moments he will be in "dreaming land"—as docile as a kitten—just keep the animal "fuddled," as the saying is, and he will submit to the operation with commendable equine non-resistance, and the smith is thus enabled to practice the "dangerous" craft with credit to himself and also to the satisfaction of his employers.—Ex.

ABOUT THE ARMY.—The resignation of Major General Fremont promotes General Butler to the third in rank of Major Generals, going by date of commission. It also leaves a vacancy in the regular army, which will probably be filled by the appointment of General Sherman. The resignation of General Buell also leaves a vacancy in the volunteer service, which will be filled by some worthy soldier. In the regular army, McClellan is the senior, General Halleck the second, Butler the third.

On the blue mountains of our dim childhood, toward which we ever turn and look, stand the mothers who marked out to us from thence our life; the most blessed age must be forgotten ere we can forget the warmest heart.

Or all the dust thrown in men's eyes, gold dust in the most blinding.

METEORS.—There is hardly any rational way of escaping from the conclusion, that all space must be as thickly peopled with these aerial fragments as is the air in a room with particles of dust. When the rays of the sun shine through a narrow oblong, all these minute particles in the course of a ray are made evident, and so these atoms of the dust of the space are from time to time seen, not indeed when the sun is shining, but when in the dark but clear nights we watch the heavens, and note all the shining points that shoot out from the blue vault, and seem to disappear as they come.—Probably, in the majority of cases, where there is merely this momentary line of brilliant light, the atom has been made bright by the friction produced and heat evolved in passing the thin air overhead. Heated intensely, the whole has become dissipated, being either broken up or oxidized into particles quite invisible. In other cases, where the magnitude is greater, the time longer, and the phenomena more marked, a sensible mass of it is caught up, and though attracted to the earth and approaching its surface, yet fails to reach it, being also broken up into minute fragments of dust by the enormous friction met with before it can reach the actual land and sea. That in their course downward these masses are occasionally swayed about, taking a zig-zag or irregular path, seems certain; and now and then the actual broken fragments are seen to approach the earth, though they cannot be picked up on the spot where they appeared to fall. Now and then, however, a giant appears—a Titan among the minnows of the sky; molten on the surface by the friction, it yet succeeds in retaining its natural state, until at last it falls to the earth a solid, though not unbroken mass. Masses of magnetic iron and nickel, with occasionally other metals, and also masses of sandstone, have been picked up on the earth, after falling from the sky, and have been examined by competent chemists. They are the materials that people space; they are fragments of matter widely and perhaps universally distributed; they are materials collected or left behind by the wild comet in its course; they may be the food of the sun, the fuel conveyed in some mysterious manner to keep up that burning mass that is the source of light and heat, whose rays give light, and of whose atmosphere we are now beginning to learn something from the experiments recently made on light. And these materials accord pretty well with those common on the earth. They form no new metal or mineral.—They are combinations not unknown, if not common, of very familiar ingredients.

A WONDERFUL BUNCH OF PEARS.—There are to be seen in the Pacific Fruit Market a bunch of 50 pears, of the Louise Bonne de Jersey variety, on a stem only 8 inches long, the whole weighing 19 pounds, which makes the weight of each pear over six ounces. This bunch was brought from Brigg's orchard near Marysville. It will be exhibited at the Mechanics' Institute Fair, and photographs of it are to be sold for the benefit of the Christian Commission Fair.—Bul.

NOVEL USE OF CORN.—American ingenuity has discovered a novel purpose to which corn can be put, namely, for stretching boots and shoes. The boot or shoe is well filled with corn, and made sure by such tight tying that none can escape. It is then immersed for several hours in water, during which the latter is distending by the gradual swelling of the grain. After taking it from the water a coating of neat's foot oil laid on, and let to dry, renders the boot or shoe ready for wear.

WHALING IN MONTEREY BAY.—The schooner Caroline E. Foote arrived at Santa Cruz, on Tuesday of last week, having succeeded in capturing five humpback whales during the last fortnight.—The whaling business on this Coast, especially in and about the Bay of Monterey, is assuming quite an importance, and is proving very profitable to those engaged in it.

A BAD cold makes a man supercilious. He sneezes at everything.

EXPRESSION OF FEMININE DRESS.—Women are more like flowers than we think. In their dress and adornment they express their nature as the flower do in their petals and colors. Some women are like the modest daisies and violets—they never look or feel better than when dressed in a morning wrapper.—Others are not themselves unless they can flame out in gorgeous dyes, like the tulip or bush rose. Who has not seen women just like white lilies? We know several double marigolds and poppies.—There are women fit only for velvets, like the dahlias; others are graceful and airy, like the azaleas. Now and then you see hollyhocks and sunflowers. When women are free to dress as they like, uncontrolled by others, and not limited by their circumstances, they do not fail to express their true characters, and dress becomes a form of expression very genuine and useful.

A MUTTON MILL.—A gentleman traveling in New York State overtook a farmer dragging a lean, wretched looking horned sheep along the road.

"Where are you going with that miserable animal?" said the traveler.

"I'm taking him to the mutton mill to have him ground over," said the farmer.

"The mutton mill! I never heard of such a thing. I will go with you and witness the process."

They arrived at the mill—the poor sheep was thrown alive into the hopper, and almost immediately disappeared.—They descended into a lower apartment, and in a few moments there were ejected from a spout in the ceiling four quarters of excellent mutton, two skins of morocco, a fur hat of the finest quality, a sheep's head handsomely dressed, and two elegantly carved powder-horns?

A BEAUTIFUL THOUGHT.—A writer, whose life has passed its meridian, thus discourses upon the flight of time:

"Forty years once seemed a long and weary pilgrimage to make. It now seems but a step. And yet along the way are broken shrines, where a thousand hopes have wasted to ashes; foot-prints sacred under their drifting dust, green mounds where the grass is fresh with the watering of tears; shadows even which we would not forget. We will garner the sunshine of those years, and with chastened step and hopes, push on toward the eve."

IN one of the courts of Hartford, Ct., a woman was testifying in behalf of her son, and swore that he worked on a farm ever since he was born. The lawyer, who cross-examined her, said: "You assert that your son has worked on a farm ever since he was born?"

"What did he do the first year?"

"He milked," she replied.

The whole court laughed heartily, and the witness was questioned no further.

SWITZERLAND, already so rich in beautiful scenery, has had a new feature added to its wonders of nature. Near St. Maurice, in the Canton de Vaud, a grand crystal cavern has been discovered, at which one arrives by a boat on a subterranean lake. The cavern lies 400 metres, or 1,300 feet, below the surface of the earth, and is said to be beautiful beyond description.

Teetotalism forbids a man to touch anything that can intoxicate except pretty girls' lips. You may taste that article after signing the pledge, if you only do it discreetly and with moderation.

"John, how I wish it was as much the fashion to trade wives as to trade horses."

"Why so, Dick?"

"I'd chest somebody most shockingly before night."

An old sailor said he supposed that dancing girls wore their dresses at half mast, as a mark of respect to departed modesty.

The experience of many a life, "What a fool I have been!" The experience of many a wife, "What a fool I've got!"

OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 10th, 1864.

J. J. KNOWLTON & Co., are our authorized Agents for receiving Subscriptions and Advertisements. Office—Cor. Montgomery and California streets, opposite Wells, Fargo & Co., San Francisco.

The proceedings of the Board of Equalization will be published next week.

THE DEAD.—Twenty-six bodies were removed from the rooms of Coroner Reeves, in Sacramento, on Tuesday and Wednesday, and interred in various places—all victims of the Washoe disaster.

A DISEASE is prevalent among the cattle of Napa Valley and vicinity, which is proving very fatal. Forty or fifty cows have died of it within a month, and its attacks are so sudden that the first knowledge the owners obtain, is by finding their animals dead.

The Calaveras Chronicle says that a man named Kruse, a brewer at Vallecito, fell into one of the vats containing hot liquor, in the Vallecito brewery, on Thursday, Aug. 25th. The deceased leaves a wife and five small children.

We publish to-day the Report of the County Treasurer and Auditor, showing the receipts and expenditures of this Office, for county purposes, for the quarter ending Sept. 1st, 1864.

Also, a list of persons, the valuation of whose property has been added to, with the amount so added on the Assessment Roll, who have not appeared before the Board:

SWISS BELL RINGERS.—The Blaisdell Brothers, the original Campanallogians or Swiss Bell Ringers, in National Swiss costume, playing 239 bells, the largest weighing 14 pounds, the smallest 4 ounces, will give a concert in the Good Templar's Hall, Woodland, on Monday evening next. All who are fond of good music should not fail to attend.

COUNTY COURT.—In County Court, Sept. 5th, cases were disposed of as follows:

T. J. Dexter vs. His Creditors, and Daniel A. Lewis vs. His Creditors—Decrees of final discharge were obtained.

J. E. Allen vs. R. S. Cary—Judgment for defendant.

H. Hubbert vs. Warren Cole—By stipulation of attorneys, defendant has twenty days in which to answer plaintiff's complaint.

George W. Dennen vs. George W. Pierce—Judgment for defendant.

We refer our readers to the advertiz. of R. H. McDonald & Co., the largest dealers in Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, etc., and more extensively known than any other house on the Pacific coast. They have opened a store in San Francisco in connection with the one in Sacramento.

Also, to the advertisement of Lock & Lavenson, dealers in Carpets, Oil Cloths, Window shades, Paper Hangings, and manufacturers of all kinds of Mattresses, No. 172 J street, bet. 6th and 7th. Also agents for Singer's and the New England Sewing Machines.

SPEAKING of the reception of the dead and wounded at Sacramento, Sept. 6th, the Nevada Transcript says:

The members of the Howard Benevolent Association were present, alleviating pain and ministering to the wants of the injured. In praise of this society too much cannot be said. During the floods thousands of the homeless were cared for by its members, and now, when the steamer Antelope came up to Sacramento freighted with the sufferers, taken from the wreck of the Washoe, the alarm bells were sounded, and at the summons the members of the Association went forth as messengers of comfort to the dead and dying. The existence of such a society, and the quiet effectiveness of the work, speak volumes for the city of Sacramento.

COPPERHEAD LOGIC.—A few days since a negro was arrested at Lincoln on a charge of larceny, and taken before a magistrate for examination. When the examination of witnesses on the part of the people was closed, the magistrate informed the defendant that the statute gave him a right to make a statement in relation to the charge against him. The negro came forward and raised his hand to be sworn, when he was informed that he could not be sworn—that he was merely to make a statement; whereupon some intelligent Copperheads in attendance became very indignant towards the magistrate, loudly asserting that the negro ought to be sworn—that the country had come to a d—d pretty pass if a negro's word was as good as a white man's oath.

Too Loyal.
We know not what the feeling is among the Copperheads generally in relation to McClellan's nominations, but it is very evident that he is too loyal to suit the fancies of the Davisites in Yolo.

One very prominent "Democrat," who ran on the Copperhead ticket for two offices last year, says: "I can't go McClellan; he is too d—d loyal." Another "Democratic" office-holder in the county says, he has not yet concluded to vote for Mac; he "will wait and find out whether he made such a speech at West Point as is represented," and if he did, our office-holder says he shall conclude that Mac is not an honest man. We have convincing evidence of a score of other Copperheads in this county who affirm that they will not support McClellan; some preferring Lincoln and others Fremont.

We care but little for whom they vote, for there are plenty of loyal men in the country to save the government. They can all vote as they please; no one will hinder them.

Who are Voters?

There appears to be a diversity of opinion, even amongst men of general information, as to what qualifications will entitle persons to vote in this State at the ensuing Presidential election.

In the first place, we should bear in mind that we do not vote for President and Vice-President, but for Electors, who are to cast the vote for the State, and who are elected in the same manner as other State officers.

In the next place, it should be understood that each State has the undoubted right to prescribe the qualifications of its own voters. And it is equally clear that the act of naturalization does not, of itself, confer on the individual naturalized the right to vote at an election. The qualification that the voter is required to possess depends entirely on the laws of the State where he offers to vote. Thus, in the State of Pennsylvania, to entitle a man to vote for Presidential electors, he must have paid within two years next preceding the election, a State or county tax, assessed on himself individually, at least six months prior to such election; and he must be a citizen of the United States; whilst in the State of New York, to entitle one to vote he need not be a citizen of the United States, provided he has declared his intention to become such, and need not have paid either a State or county tax. In the State of California, it is not necessary that one should have paid a tax to entitle him to vote, but he must be a citizen of the United States; and the simple fact of his having declared his intention to become a citizen does not entitle him to vote under our statute.

Citizens of one State are not, by the Constitution of the United States, entitled to the political privileges of citizens of another State, within that State. The words of the Constitution, "The citizens of each State shall be entitled to all the privileges and immunities of citizens of the several States," do not mean the right of election, of being elected, &c.; they mean that the citizens of all the States shall have the right to acquire and hold property, and that such property shall be protected by the laws of the State in the same manner that it would be if the party were a citizen of the particular State. Hence it is a mistaken idea that all citizens of the United States have a right to vote at a Presidential election at whatever place or in whatever State they may happen to be on election day. It is also a mistake to suppose that because a foreigner has had the right to vote in one State by virtue of his having declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, that he is therefore entitled to vote in this State after having resided here six months.

It is also a mistake to suppose that persons who have arrived in this State within the last six months preceding an election are entitled to vote, notwithstanding they may have started for this place a year ago. Neither is it true that a person is entitled to vote at a Presidential election in this State outside of the County in which he resides.

Our latest statute upon the subject, passed at the last session of the legislature, provides that to entitle one to vote, he must be a citizen of the United States, upwards of twenty-one years of age, must have resided in the State six months next preceding the election, and in the county, township, or ward, as the case may be, thirty days.

Knight's Landing, Sept. 7th, 1864.

EDITOR WOODLAND NEWS:—On Monday last, when the Sacramento Union came to hand, confirming the capture of Atlanta, Geo., by the gallant Sherman, the Union men of this place prepared to celebrate the glorious news. In the evening a fire was lighted, and the Anvil Battery was brought out and manned; the band of this place was also on the ground, as on other loyal occasions, cheers were given for Sherman, Grant, Honest Old Abe, and the Army and Navy of the United States; suffice it to say, the celebration was kept up until "the wee sma' hours ayont the twa'ill."

Eastern News.

The following summary of Telegraphic news is taken from the Union of yesterday:—
By Continental Telegraph we have news to the 8th of September. The returns of the election in the State of Vermont show a majority for the Union candidate for Governor of about 22,000—a gain of 5,000 since last year! Reuben E. Fenton is the Union candidate for Governor of New York. General Dix declined the nomination. Thomas L. Price is the Copperhead candidate for Governor of Missouri.

The army is being reinforced at a cheering rate, but the War Department insist upon the enforcement of the draft, commencing in the districts which have exhibited alacrity in recruiting. The treasury is getting the funds with which to square up accounts with the soldiers.

Up to the 6th there was no fighting of consequence in front of Petersburg, and operations in the Shenandoah Valley have been confined to skirmishing. It was thought at Petersburg that part of E. R. ly's troops had returned, and that Lee contemplated an attack on Grant's left flank. Our army was prepared for the enemy, but they did not appear.

Sherman reports, somewhat in detail, his brilliant operations in Georgia. His whole army is at Atlanta. The rebel raid in Tennessee is a failure. Rousseau is pursuing Wheeler in the vicinity of the Tennessee river, and has captured many prisoners. The railroads between Nashville and Atlanta were not much damaged, and will be in running order in a day or two. Rebel papers call for the restoration of J. Johnston to command.

In the Copperhead State Convention yesterday resolutions endorsing the Chicago nominees and platform were adopted. The following are the nominees for Electors: At large, H. P. Barber, of Tuolumne, and John T. Doyle, of San Francisco; First District, B. F. White; Second District, Joseph Hamilton; Third District, Colonel E. J. Lewis. The following nominations for Congress were made: First District, John G. Downey; Second, Jas. W. Coffroth; Third, Jackson Temple. A ratification meeting was held on the Plaza in the evening.

THE END DRAWS NIGH.—No man can reasonably entertain any idea that we shall have peace until one side or the other is conquered and gives up the contest. A divided Union is utterly impracticable. The Southern Confederacy must extend to the Northern lakes, or the Federal Union must subdue the rebellion and remain intact, one and undivided. Any compromise of the questions at issue will prove futile. A glance at the present condition of things must be anything but encouraging to the rebel leaders. They have forced into the field their entire fighting population; and if they gain victories they will purchase them at an expense of men that cannot be replaced. But they are gaining ground nowhere. Sherman is in the heart of Georgia, thundering at the gates of Atlanta. [He is inside of them.] Grant is gradually tightening his coils around Richmond, sapping the grand sources of Lee's supplies. Farragut has accomplished grand achievements at Mobile. Charleston, little less than a ruin, is closely invested. The rebels are powerless to avert the impending doom which inevitably awaits them. The question now is one of endurance. How long can they hold out? We believe the problem is rapidly approaching its solution. It would have been solved ere this but for the traitorous Copperhead party at the North, whose every act has been to embarrass the Administration, and throw obstacles in the way of a vigorous prosecution of the war. Blind serpents! With the history of the Cow Boys and Tories of the Revolution fresh in their memories, can they not imagine what their own future will be? They and their descendants must wear upon their foreheads the brand of infamy through all coming time. Debarred from all positions of public trust within the Union (not as it was, but as it is to be)—shut out from the fellowship of freemen—objects of public scorn and contempt—Arnolds all—they will go down to their dishonored graves "unwept, unhonored and unsung." Against the light of reason and the intelligence of the age, they are willfully bringing these fearful penalties upon their heads.—San Jose Mercury.

CHRISTIAN COMMISSION MAMMOTH COOKING WAGON FOR THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.—The Philadelphia Inquirer of 21st July says:

A novel invention passed up Chestnut street yesterday morning, attracting much attention. It was a cooking wagon presented to the United States Christian Commission by a patriotic gentleman of this city. It was drawn by two fine horses. The cooking wagon consists of three boilers for making tea, coffee or soup. From the furnaces of each of these boilers a smoke pipe arises, giving the machine the resemblance of a fire engine. Each boiler holds 14 gallons, and is capable, while on the march, with good fuel, of boiling 10 gallons each every 20 minutes, and when stationary they will boil 12 gallons each in the same time, which would be from 90 to 108 gallons per hour. The machine is coupled together like a piece of artillery, and can be unlimbered and part of it sent after more provisions or wood if necessary.

The provision chest, which is on the front part of the wagon, is fitted with japan cans for holding respectively 100 pounds of sugar, 30 pounds of ground coffee, 12 pounds of tea, 30 pounds of corn starch, and 30 pounds of extract of beef. Two tin buckets accompany the machine for the purpose of carrying water soup or coffee, to any distant portion of the field; also two grids for roasting bread or broiling meats; and an axe, with which to cut wood for the furnaces. Under the wagon is a box, in which the fuel is carried. The boilers in which tea and coffee are made contain a perforated strainer on top, into which the tea or coffee is put, and which prevents the leaves and sediment from being drawn off with the liquid. It is said that enough food can be cooked in the wagon to feed 400 men at one time. It will be of great use to the Commission's extensive operation in the Army of the Potomac.

WHAT THEY THINK.—The Copperheads, by their persistency in rendering "aid and comfort" to the rebels, says the Appeal, are encouraging themselves to the enemies of their country. The rebels confess their confidence in them. The Atlanta (Ga.) Register exhorts the Copperheads to persist in their hostility to the Government, and adds: "We can gain nothing by denouncing them. We may lose much by presenting a hostile front to their peace moments. Live with them under the same Government we never will. But, in the meantime, if they will use the ballot-box against Mr. Lincoln, while we use the cartridge box, each side will be a helper to the other, and both co-operate in accomplishing the greatest work which the country and this continent have witnessed."

HAVING been awarded the First Prizes at the different State Fairs for Monumental work, we would respectfully call Particular Attention to our specimens of California Marble, and Workmanship now on hand. It is the best Marble ever found in the United States, and is not excelled in Europe for general purposes. It is free from flint or iron, more compact, of finer texture, and susceptible of as high a polish as the best Italian. As we quarry our own Marble, and are practical workmen in it, we can furnish anything in our line cheaper than the Cheapest. And as Good as the Best! To satisfy yourselves of the fact, please call at our

The California Fly-Killing Liquid.

FLY Paper kills its thousands, the LIQUID FLY PAPER its tens of thousands. This preparation for killing flies gives the greatest satisfaction of anything ever yet used. It is now improved to the highest killing point. It is of such a nature, and so speedy in its effects that the flies will not spot the walls and windows, which makes the use of other preparations so objectionable. For sale everywhere.

Important Medical Notice!

THE ELECTROPATHIC INSTITUTE,
645 Washington street.
Below Kearny St.,
SAN FRANCISCO.
Established February, 1860, by an Association of Scientific Gentlemen,
FOR THE CURE OF DISEASE!
And for the Suppression of Quackery!

The one great object of the establishment of the Institute was to assure to the afflicted scientific and honorable treatment, where they would be safe from the wiles of empirics, who not only rob them of their money, but fill their systems with poisonous minerals, thereby destroying what little of the constitution was left from the ravages of disease.
The result thus far has greatly exceeded the most sanguine expectations of its founders.—So liberal has been the patronage of the public that the Resident and Consulting Physician, J. H. JOSSELYN, M. D.,
Has been enabled to reduce the prices of cure very materially.
The Institute combines with its practice both the use of Vegetable Medicines and the Electro-pathic System; that is, the use of Electricity and the Celebrated Electro-Medical Bath,—the most powerful auxiliary in the removal of virus from the system yet discovered.
It is not necessary to enumerate all the diseases treated at the Institute. All diseases—no matter what may be their name or nature—will be treated in the most scientific manner.

Veneral. This terrible scourge can be eradicated by the system practiced at the Institute in a much shorter time than it has hitherto been accomplished by any other Physician in this country, and so entirely is the disease removed that no taint is left in the blood to break out at some future time. The RESIDENT PHYSICIAN would advise any one who has been afflicted, and who may have any fears that a cure was not effected, or that there is some of the virus still remaining, to call or write and consult him, and they can at once have their mind relieved, and should there be any trouble, a cure can be warranted.

To Females.
Ladies afflicted or in trouble will find at the Institute one who can understand and sympathize with them in their afflictions, and one who will render them prompt assistance, no matter what may be the trouble or disease, with the utmost dispatch and secrecy. Irregularities attended to promptly, and by the most approved methods.

Seminal Weakness.
That soul-destroying disorder can be cured in a very short time by the system practiced at the Institute, and a perfect cure warranted. Medicines sent to all parts of the State, Oregon, Nevada Territory, and, in fact, everywhere within the range of Express facilities.
All letters answered promptly and with pleasure, when directed to

WATTS' NERVOUS ANTIDOTE!

IS THE MIRACULOUS MEDICINE!
The Elixir Vitis so long sought by the Philosophers of all Ages.
HEAR! HEAR!! READ AND TRY!!

I have had an INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM for six weeks, so bad I could not move or stand. I tried every known remedy without effect. I got one bottle of Watts' Nervous Antidote. I had no pain. I got another and am quite well. I have found it as every one says. It is a wonderful remedy.
THOS. M. TAYLOR,
428 Greenwich street.

I was very much afflicted with St. Vitus' Dance and Bleeding Piles. I have taken the Nervous Antidote and am perfectly restored to health; the twitching nerves also around the mouth is removed, and I am again working at my trade with ease and cheerfulness.
HENRY TOBIAS, 6 Talman St., Brooklyn.

One bottle of the Antidote has cured me of Liver Complaint and a violent Pain in the Side. I can now go to work.
WM. THOMPSON, Kent av., Brooklyn.

Watts' Nervous Antidote has cured me of a Cough and Nervous Debility of very long standing. I feel the greatest benefit from it, in sleep, appetite, and general health.
JANE THOMAS, Fifteenth st., west of 8th av.

I have received great benefit from Watts' Nervous Antidote in Nervous Debility and Deafness; it has improved my hearing, general health, and spirits, in fact I have received the greatest good from it.
MRS. TROTMAN,
Coopers' Av., Newport, L. I.

April 3d, 1860
To Talbot Watts, Esq: Dear Sir—your medicine is the most astonishing thing I ever met with in the world. As I told you I was Weak, Nervous, had no Appetite, and not able to do anything; I took one teaspoonful of your medicine at night, and in the morning I got up fresh like a different person, ate a good breakfast, did my work easily, and altogether felt quite well and happy.

IF YOU ARE SICK, READ THIS!!

MODERN CHEMISTRY has given to the world many new and valuable compounds, and the physician should have a proper knowledge of the chemistry of life, that he may with safety prescribe that which is best suited to meet the wants and supply the demands of animal economy, thereby arresting disease, and effecting a cure much sooner, without injury to the constitution.

DOCTOR A. BALL has accepted the proffered aid of science in isolating and concentrating active principles in rendering medicinal agents safe, prompt, efficient, and pleasant: the old, usual nauseating, and bulky drugs he discards altogether.
DOCTOR BALL has been engaged in the general practice of medicine for forty years, and having had great success in the treatment of the following diseases, has determined to advertise for the benefit of suffering humanity.

Syphilis and Gonorrhea.—In all their complications and stages, Dr. BALL has a new and valuable remedy, which will radically cure in one-fourth the usual time. Potassium, Mercury and Balsams discarded.
Spermatorrhea.—And its complications, Dr. BALL has a specific.

Rheumatism.—Dr. BALL has a specific for this terrible disease, which will give relief in a few hours, and cure in ten days.

Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Pimples, Piles, &c., Skillfully treated, and permanently cured in one-fourth the time usually required in such cases.

Leucorrhoea.—And the thousand and one diseases with which woman is often afflicted, Dr. BALL has successfully treated by discarding all the old unsatisfactory remedies and substituting pleasant and efficient medicines, which act like a charm; in a few days the cheek begins to bloom like the rose, and in two or three weeks cheerfulness, activity, and health is the inevitable result.

Dr. BALL has correspondents in London, Paris, and Boston, who supply him with all the new and valuable medicinal agents as soon as approved by the great Medical Lights.

Dr. Ball is no Quack.
He is a regularly educated physician of forty years standing, and has a diploma, which he will be pleased to exhibit to those who may wish to see it.

Persons living at a distance, by sending a description of their complaint can have their medicines put up in a package and sent by mail or per express in such a manner as not only to insure safety in transit, but so that no one would suspect what are the contents.

Reference will be sent by mail to those who may wish to inquire as to the Doctor's ability, before placing themselves in his charge.
